

CARSTEN KAALUND TO BECOME NEW CFO

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, 1 May 2018 – Napatech A/S (“Napatech”, OSE: NAPA) today announced that Niels Hobolt is resigning as Chief Financial Officer effective 21 May 2018 due to private reasons. Carsten Kaalund, currently Napatech’s controller, will enter into the position as the company’s CFO upon Hobolt’s departure.

“Niels has been the CFO of Napatech since 2007, and we are very grateful for his strong contributions to the company. Although we regret his decision, we understand that Niels will spend more time with his family, and wish him all the best for the future,” says Henrik Brill Jensen, CEO of Napatech.

Carsten Kaalund, previously controller in Napatech, will enter into the position as the company’s CFO. Carsten comes with 17 years of experience from financial controller and senior finance manager positions, of which several in listed companies, and has been with Napatech since June 2017. Kaalund is a Danish citizen.

“I am pleased to welcome Carsten as Napatech’s new CFO. He has extensive experience in finance, a thorough knowledge of our business, and I have had the pleasure of working closely with him during the past year. I am looking forward to introduce him to investors and analysts at the Q1 2018 presentation in May,” says Henrik Brill Jensen.
